

Appendix ./11: Processing of personal data

The Parties shall agree that all personal data managed in connection with and in the course of conclusion and performance of this Agreement shall be handled in accordance with domestic and European Union data protection legislation.

In particular, under personal data is meant any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.

Furthermore, under personal information is not understood information that cannot be associated with or tracked back to a specific individual.

Furthermore, the Parties shall agree that personal data of their natural person employees, company representatives and contributors (hereinafter together referred to as "Contributor") will be handled in connection with and in the course of conclusion and performance of this Agreement. In respect of its own Contributor, each Party is a data controller, whereas in respect of the Contributor of the data controlling Party, the other Party is recipient.

The Parties shall agree that the purposes of personal data management in relation with the present Agreement are registration of documents in the course of the performance of the Agreement, invoice management, records of contact details of business partners at organizational level and enforcement of legal claims of the Parties.

The Parties declare that they have transmission system operator license and they have the legal basis for the data processing, which is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the Parties in reference to Article 6 sec. (1) f) of GDPR.

In absence of any different legal provision about period for which the personal data would be stored, all exchanged personal data will be handled by the Parties for 5 years after the termination (performance) of present Agreement.

By signing this Agreement the Parties shall unconditionally and irrevocably undertake:

- to inform, as data controller, its own employees in the course of performance of this Agreement, about the purposes of data management,
- to bear full liability for damages arising from the non-fulfilment or late performance of its obligation laid down in this section.
